Photoplays
Nelson. The Galley Slave
Princess. Melody of Death
Dixie. The Price of Silence
Grand. Seventeen

IN TODAY'S bill at the Nelson patrons of this popular house will witness Bartley Campbell's masterpiece, the like of which has not been produced by any of the modern dramatists mainly because the theme is of people and conditions of over a half century ago. Yet through it all it is entirely human and portrays events that are possible of every day occurrence. But it differs because it lacks the present day practice of injecting questionable situations and a striving for the lascivious. "The Galley Slave" on the other hand is a good wholesome drama, inspired by the purest motives of love and fidelity. It has a number of thrilling climaxes. Theda Bara is cast in the role of Francisca and one could not imagine a better interpretation than Miss Bara gives it.

"My Honolulu Girl" has arrived and the whole company of twenty-five are scattered about the city, awaiting the time to put on their big show at the Hippodrome. Their arrival in this city in advance of their scheduled date was in the nature of a surprise, but is explained by the fact that Fairmont is the last place this company will appear under the present booking arrangements. After the completion of the three-day run here "My Honolulu Girl" will be seen only in the larger cities. They are now being booked through the United Booking office and start out from New York next week on the new schedule. The company has been playing on the Gus Sun circuit all this season and were booked to split the week between Rochester, N. Y., and this city, but on account of the big jump it became necessary to cancel one of the engagements, and due to Manager Burke's personal efforts and a promise made him some time ago by the Friedenwald management Fairmont was favored.

Alice Berry, the tiny leading lady, is a bigger somebody than one would judge from her stature. She is the highest salaried "prima donna" in musical comedy today and anyone who has observed her performances can readily understand why.

She, herself, is a whole show, singing, dancing and participating in the majority of the amusing situations. Her "Wacky Wacky Woon," "Shooting the Bull" and "Bouncing the Rubber Ball" are far above most anything one has ever seen along that line. Her hulu hulu dance and other bits with members of the company evoke the most liberal applause everywhere.

Charles Burkhardt is here, there and everywhere, chasing the blues and causing much comment. In some of his makeups he creates a storm of laughter by just walking upon the stage, so it can be imagined what happens when he does his best to be funny. Bert Converse, the string bean bell boy, sets all laughing when he appears and leaves everyone laughing when he says goodbye. Inez Rodriguez, petite, graceful and pretty, takes part in the general action of the comedy. Her dance with Joe Barrett, Jr., is invariably showered with appreciation. Mr. Barrett is a success as a "straight" man filling in just right with the other principals. Belle Belmont sings oon songs in a way that cause some to loose control of their feet to keep time with the music.

The chorus of the company is said to be the most select on the vaudeville stage. The chorus girls are Loretta Allen, Gladys Vernon, Joyce Adair, Kathryn Rovers, Ruth Irvin, Vera Verducia, Bella Martis, May Morse.

This is "Liberty" day at the Princess and the title of today's episode is "The Wolf's Nemesis." Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo and Jack Holt, who have become real favorites with patrons of this house, are, of course, featured in the play. Added to this weekly feature there is a Rex production in which Douglas Gerrance, Maud George and Ruth Clifford divide honors as stars. "The Melody of Death" is the title.

The vaudeville bill at the Hipp for the first half of the week is good. There are nine performers in the outfit with three big acts. Senefor Gualano plays an accordion that's almost big enough to have another name, and the music he gets out of it takes in the whole line from rag time to grand opera. Assisted by his partner, Miss Marguerite, they introduce a pleasing dance and the latter herself sings a delightful Spanish aria. Mardo & Hunter furnish the most comedy of the bill in a neat military sketch for which they carry their own stage setting. The Five Funsters are four men and a woman, all with voices that produce a veritable avalanche of harmony. It is a good vaudeville bill all through.

OLD STAGER.

Purely Surface Indications. Charlotte came into the yard looking very sweet and pretty and quite conscious of the fact.

"I am prettier than you, ain't I?" she said to a man who was working in the yard.

"That depends on how you behave," he replied. "If you don't behave you won't be pretty."

She looked him over critically, expressing as her conclusion, "My, but you must have been naughty!"—The Christian Herald.

COMING TO THE HIPPODROME THEATRE

Scene from "My Honolulu Girl," while one of the song hits is being rendered. This big musical comedy is booked for the Hipp the last half of the week.

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Martin-Swearingen. Announcement has been made of the marriage of Carl W. Martin, formerly of this city, now of Huntington, and Miss Nell Swearingen, of this city, which event was solemnized on September 14, 1916, in Parkersburg. Mr. Martin, who in January moved from this city to Huntington, returned here last week and with his bride left last night for Huntington to reside. Mrs. Martin is a daughter of P. B. Swearingen, and a niece of Mrs. Belle Payne, of Mt. Vernon avenue, with whom she resides. She is a graduate of Broadwood College at Philippi. Mr. Martin until recently was a member of the local fire department. He is a son of the late Dr. George Martin, of Kingwood.

Mission Study Class. The Mission Study class of the Williams Memorial M. E. church meets tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. T. Webb at 503 Second street. Mrs. Ward Downs will lead the meeting, the lesson being taken from the text book, "Old Spain in New America."

Entertained Friends. Miss Naomi Stevens entertained a number of friends last evening at her home on Haymont street. The guests included the Misses Katharyn Gill, Mary Kiser, Ethel Alth, Eva Hoover, Messrs. Forrest Knight, Lloyd Lancaster, Raymond Francis, J. E. Rager. Refreshments were served during the evening.

For Mrs. Collins. Honoring Mrs. Jarvis Collins, who leaves soon for Akron, O., to join Mr. Collins, a surprise party was given last evening at her home on Chicago street, the event having been arranged by several of her friends. The guests included Messdames Frank Hanway, Jas. Wright, H. R. Jack, Thelma Snider, J. O. Whorley, M. E. Nuzum, R. L. Tucker, C. R. Fletcher, Misses Clara A. Snoderly, Florence Jack, Lucile, Ralph and Lawrence Nuzum, Bert and Mulford Collins.

Department Meetings. An interesting meeting of the Art and Literature department of the Woman's Club was held yesterday afternoon the subject for discussion being "The Theatre." Mrs. George DeBolt, chairman of the department, led the discussion with a description of John Galsworthy's "Justice," and also told of several other plays of the same class which have been produced in New

Oils Soothe
Skin Disease

Oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine and other healing ingredients compounded in proper proportion into the D. D. D. Prescription has now become the universal favorite of skin sufferers in relieving skin disease. It is a mild wash that penetrates the pores and gives instant relief from all burning and itching. It kills and washes off the gnawing disease germs and its soothing oils quickly heal the inflamed tissues.

Druggists are glad to recommend this soothing, cooling liquid. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.

on an organ. He completed a world's record of 500 recitals, given in direct succession on the largest organs of Canada and the United States, on the former tour.

To Have Guests at Sonnencroft. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson, of Barling, W. Va., will arrive here this week for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, at Sonnencroft.

Club to Meet. The Young Married Women's Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Barry at 1015 Virginia avenue.

Membership Tea. The local chapter of the Red Cross Society will hold a membership tea on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Virginia Fleming on Jefferson street. Each member is expected to attend and to bring at least one guest who will become a member of the society.

It has also been announced that beginning this week the chapter will meet on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 to carry on the work of the chapter. It is thought that the increased membership will obtain better results by concentrating the work to one afternoon of each week.

PERSONALS

Mrs. S. G. Kline and son, Richard, leave in the morning for Wheeling where the latter will take treatment at a Wheeling hospital.

Miss Helen Hall, of Washington, Pa., is the guest of Miss Margaret Knight. Mrs. Boyd Cutlip, who had been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Helmick, has returned to her home in Clarksburg.

Spring Millinery

A Splendid Showing of Choice Creations

IT is the sort of showing to arouse any woman to enthusiasm and it has been a great satisfaction to hear the many pleased comments of the visitors to the millinery room.

The hats on display are all in the newest models for Spring and Easter wear and we doubt if there was ever such variety in shapes and colorings or more becoming styles.

In the first place it is to be a season of colors, such as will make all other seasons of colors pale into insignificance.

The distinctive shapes are probably even more noteworthy. Designers have taken for many of their models the quaint high crowned hats of long ago and transformed them into the most bewitching styles. Of course, there are broad brimmed sailors and small close fitting hats too.

The trimmings are made up of braids, silk embroidery floss, beads, feather quills, ribbons, flowers and tassels; and many of the new fashions show expert hand work of Chinese origin.

Yet, in spite of all this, you may choose from a splendid variety of hats at $3.50, $4.00, $5, and $6. Of course, prices go higher than this, but there is plenty to select from at these moderate figures.

Now, while the variety is large, is the best time to select your Spring Hat.

Women Have Begun Their
Easter Outfitting in Earnest

Every day now sees more and more women and young women inspecting the new coats, suits and dresses. They know that they can count on finding the newest fashions here at moderate prices.

Spic and Span New Suits

Some of the smartest suits are of blue serge, showing lots of pleats, large collars; and some mannish models in Norfolk and pinch back styles; buttons playing the most important part in trimming. Besides the serge suits, there are beautiful fashions of Tricotine serge, Gabardine, Vigoreaux, Velour, Jersey, Kha-kool and silks in all the best colors. Prices run from $15 to $45.

Beautiful Dresses in Profusion

There is a bewildering array of colors and materials to choose from. Taffeta, Crepe-de-Chine, Meteor, Satin, Pongee, Khaki-kool, Piping Rock and Georgette are the materials, while the colors and styles are almost unlimited. Embroidery, beading and braiding make up the trimmings.

Prices are $12.00, $15.00, $16.50, $18.00 and upwards.
(SECOND FLOOR.)

The New Silks
Are Ready

They are here—plenty, brilliant and beautiful. They are the silks for the new Easter gowns, and the gowns will be beautiful.

FANCY TAFFETA—one of brown with real fine stripes running very close together throughout the goods and a half inch stripe of black running four inches apart and groups of points in pastel shades here and there finishes the pattern, 36 inches wide, $3 a yard.

FANCY TAFFETAS—in plaids and stripes, come in blue, green, burgundy, tan and brown, 36 inches wide, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50 a yard.

CREPE-DE-CHINE—40 inches wide, white, pink, mustard, tennis, navy, light blue, gray, green, burgundy, rose and black, $1.50 and $1.75 a yard.

SILK KHA-KOOL—in tan and oyster white, 36 inches wide $2.25 a yard.

GEORGETTE CREPE—40 inches wide, white, pink, oyster, gold, rose, brown, green, tan, gray, blue and black, $1.75 a yard.

STRIPED WASH SILKS—in a variety of colored stripes, 36 inches wide, $1.25 a yard.
